When one terrible event has occurred the newspaper man with nose for news, is on the alert, looking for and expecting something else of the same nature, something similar to happen. And he is rarely disappointed. It is a strange theory, but its demonstration is stranger still. There are storms of lesser magnitude, and there are cyclones. The distinction is one of degree alone. So with these crime waves. There are cyclones - simooms of crime. As the simooms with its breath of hell swoops down on the city of the desert, stifling, suffocating every creature in its path, so did a crime simoom swoop down upon the fair city of Atlanta - startling, stifling, suffocating. No words can picture the consternation, the destruction, the desolation it brought. It was something unique in the history...
