Excerpt: .to have a choice of operation at least for some time to come. Nor can I altogether agree with your Lordship, in thinking that a desultory move against Philadelphia would do more harm than good. There, my Lord, are collected their principal depots of stores for the campaign, an immense quantity of European and West-India commodities, and no inconsiderable supply of money, which their uninterrupted trade and cruisers have lately procured them; and from these funds they are now forming a bank by subscription, which, if it succeeds, may give fresh vigour to their cause. Could we therefore at this moment seize those important magazines, c. overset their schemes, and break up their public credit, the favourable consequences resulting from such success are too obvious obvious to need explanation. And all this, my Lord, I have no doubt might have been effected if our reinforcement had arrived in time, and the enemy had no prospect of receiving any without our either keeping or destroying Philadelphia; the latter of which is foreign to my inclination, and the former is certainly at present inadvisable. I have the honour to be, c. H. CLINTON. NUMBER X. Earl Cornwallis to Sir Henry Clinton, K. B. dated Williamsburgh June 30, 1781. S I R, AFTER passing James river, at Westover, I moved to Hanover court-house, and crossed the South Anna; the Marquis de la Fayette marched to his left, keeping above at the distance of about twenty miles. By...
