AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Finding Eternal Life is more than a book. It's a spiritual pilgrimage designed to lead an open-minded seeker to an encounter with God, suggesting the reader may find Eternal Life and a personal relationship with God, through Jesus Christ. This forty-day journey contains eighty topical readings, arranged to logically build on the previous day's subject and lead the reader in ever-growing faith. Themes range from Creation, and the fall of man, to life after death. Each day has two readings, for Daybreak and Sundown, laden with bible verses in a modern translation. Sample prayers guide the reader into natural speech with the Creator. This timely book shows which Bible prophecies were fulfilled in recent history, like the rebirth of Israel in 1948 that began the ticking clock of the End Times. The section, When Will Messiah Come? lists future events, the Bible predicts that must occur before Jesus returns. This non-denominational journey is for anyone who hasn't found the peace of knowing they can have Eternal Life. It's for those who want to know more about Christian beliefs and the claims of Jesus Christ. The book may also be used to strengthen a Christian's faith or for assurance of salvation.
