Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Married for the first time at age twenty-nine, armed with a legacy to fulfill and the call of God to evangelize on her life, Tequita was ready to take the world by storm. However, shortly after she said I do, her hopes and dreams were replaced with a harsh reality: her husband was an addict. Forced with the dilemma of how to honor God in her marriage and her life with all its pieces falling apart, she turned to the scriptures. Using Israel's season of shame in the book of Isaiah and her own heart-rending story as a backdrop, she provides encouragement and hope for those who are dealing with painfully unforeseen and unexpected trials in their lives. From unforgiveness and brokenness to healing and wholeness, For My Shame chronicles her spiritual transformation from pain to purpose.
