Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Proceedings of the Thirteenth Annual Meeting of the Michigan Gas Association: Held at Detroit, Michigan, September 20, 21 and 22, 1905 In considering the address which custom has decreed the President of this Association shall make at the Meeting concluding his term of office, it has seemed to me that the idea of withholding the subject from the previous knowledge of the members and its usual reference to a small committee, has been a practice open to some improvement. I hope, therefore, that it may meet with the approval of the Association that this year the address has taken the course of the papers to be presented, and that the Chairman will open it to general discussion. Certainly it has seemed to me fitting that the review of events or the expressed opinions of a responsible officer of the Association should not be allowed to pass without the members having such opportunity fully and promptly. The year that has passed, although not marked by any unusual advance in production practice, has nevertheless been one of...
