You see the pain, their starvation, and the injuries. You also see their determination and perseverance. These are the kitties own stories. With each rescue, I learned something more about myself. As time passes, I learn their personalities, see them develop friendships with myself and other cats. I watch over them as they live out their lives in safety. I am with them when they pass away in peace. There is Bob, a kitty whose owner took his own life after a life of drugs and alcohol. His own father was determined to kill Bob, the one thing his son loved most in this life. The story of Rug Rat who survived scavenging for scraps of grain at a stable to survive. How little Rugs saved my own life as she frantically warned me about a fire danger. Rugs changed the heart of a woman who never showed compassion for any animal before holding little Rugs. Read about Five Kittens Found and how dynamic people rise to the occasion when an animal is...
