What would you do if your one true love was taken from you and you had the chance to get them back? Rick and Ali Bello are about to celebrate their 10 year anniversary when Rick dies from a fatal car accident on his way to meet her. Distraught and given up on life, Ali retreats into her own mind of life before the loss of her true love. One day Ali is awoken by a dream or premonition of Rick which he appears and tells her that she must get on with her life otherwise they can never be together again. With a new hope of being with her deceased husband, Ali decides to change all that kept her from this moving on. She reconciles with her family and friends, and renovates her house that has brought on the many years of suffering. During this transition, she meets a new man Frank who is in charge of her home improvement. Through must resistance from her own feelings and persistence from Frank and her family to move on, Ali decides to let go and begin a new chapter in her life. ON the celebration of her house completion, Frank and Ali decide to go on a much needed vacation together. During their flight, the plane malfunctions and they plummet to their deaths. When Ali awakens and realized she is no longer on earth, she is now faced with the two men who she loved in life and she now must make a decision on which she will spend the rest of eternity with.
