This association shall be known as the National Conference of Jewish Charities in the United States. Article II. - Objects. The objects of this association are to discuss the problems of charities and to promote reforms in their administration; to provide uniformity of action and co-operation in all matters pertaining to the relief and betterment of the Jewish poor of the United States, without, however, interfering in any manner with the local work of any constituent society. Article III. - Membership And Dues. Section 1. Any regularly organized Jewish Society of the United States having charitable and philanthropic purposes may become a member of the association on application made to the Secretary and on payment of the membership dues. Sec. 2. The annual Membership Dues in a city where Federation exists shall be for such Federation one per cent. (1 ) of the annual amount expended by it for its corporate purposes during the preceding year; not less, however, than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00); and dues of five dollars ($5.00) for any constituent member of such Federation that shall desire membership in this Conference. In cities where no Federation exists, the annual membership dues for each society shall be five dollars ($5.00) where its expenditures as above are less than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) and ten dollars ($10.00) for all others.
